

Happy Birthday to You...

GRID A

GRID B

The middle one was born 130 years ago this month [Oct 2020]. Most of them are found in GRID A, running around the perimeter – which they did often. They are followed by their collective name. [5,5,5,5: 4,4] The missing one is hiding – as he did often – in the shaded squares in GRID B, when read in order. Clues from both grids are listed promiscuously in alphabetical order of solution. Put the answers where they will fit. To assist, words of 4 and 10 letters are only found in GRID A; words of 3,5,9,11 and 14 letters are only found in GRID B.
